Dear Applicant:

Enclosed in this package you will find a copy of the Auction License Law, Rules and Regulations set forth by the Alabama State Board of Auctioneers, information forms, and the official applications for Instructor, Continuing Education Provider, and Approved Auction School. These different applications are labeled accordingly. Therefore, you should be able to determine which forms you will need to complete and return. We encourage you to carefully read the Auction License Law and Rules and Regulations before you begin to fill out the application in order to familiarize yourself with the requirements. Also, you may want to make copies of the forms, as you may need them for your records and for future use.

The Board is interested in educational agendas that assist the licensee in fulfilling the Board's objective or protecting the public. Also, the Board is equally concerned with each student receiving optimal training that is beneficial and applicable to the professional auctioneer's career goals. Academic excellence is the key to success in accomplishing the goals for the Board, the individual auctioneer, and the auction industry. Those of you in Academia will be looked to as role models. Therefore, the Board encourages the emphasis on truthfulness, honesty, integrity, and that ethical conduct is stressed.

As you proceed through the application process and, in time, the renewal process, you may have specific recommendations for improvement. We welcome these suggestions and request that you either mail them to our office in Montgomery, or send them via email: auctioneers@warrenandco.com . Good Luck in all of your educational endeavors!

Sincerely,

Hope Childers
